M. B. BRADY respectfully announces that he has established a gallery of Photographic Art in Washington. He is prepared to execute commissions for the Imperial Photograph, bitherto made only at his well-known catablishment in New York.

A variety of unique and rare photographic specimens are included in his collection, together with portraits of many of the small dissinguished citizens of the United States.

Mr. BRADY brings to his Washington gallery the results of fourteen years' experience in Europe and America, and the choicest products of his art during that period. He feeds confident that the resources at his command and the article quality of his works will command his callery to the attention of the Washington public.
